In testimony whereof, the Public Regulation of the State of New Mexico has caused this certificate to be signed by its Chairman and the seal of said Commission to affixed at the City of Santa Fe.
ARTICLE VII

The name and address of the incorporator is ANN EDENFIELD, 2226 B Wyoming N.W.
#130, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87112.

ARTICLE VIII

1. This corporation shall have and may exercise all powers and rights conferred upon corporations, organized and existing under the New Mexico Nonprofit Corporation Act, and additional powers and rights conferred upon such corporations by subsequent legislative acts, subject only to the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of this Article VIII.

2. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer or other individual, or to the benefit of any organization not qualified for exemption under Sec. 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, provided that the corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered to or for the corporation.

3. The corporation shall exercise only such powers as are in furtherance of the purposes of organizations set forth in the Subsection of Sec. 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, under which the corporation chooses to qualify for exemption, as the same now exist or as it may be amended from time to time.
ARTICLE IX

In the event of the dissolution of the corporation, no portion of the assets of the corporation shall be distributed to any person or organization which is not a person or organization organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes and qualified as such under Sec. 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or other similar legislation.

ARTICLE X

A director shall not be personally liable to the corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director unless:

(1) the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director's office in compliance with Section 53-8-25.1 NMSA 1978, as amended, and

(2) the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness.

ARTICLE XI

The corporation shall indemnify its directors and officers, to the maximum extent permitted by law, against all liabilities of every nature arising directly or indirectly from service as a director, officer or agent of the corporation. The indemnification required by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in a person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such a person.

The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director, officer or agent of the corporation (collectively, "Agent") against any liability asserted against or incurred by the Agent in any such capacity or arising out of the Agent's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article. Any such insurance may be procured from any insurance company designated by the Board of Directors, including any insurance company in which the corporation shall have any equity or other interest through stock ownership or otherwise.
